

Staff Attorney Position Farmington, New Mexico

The Native American Disability Law Center is looking for qualified applicants for a Staff Attorney position. The Law Center provides legal services to Native Americans with disabilities living on or near the Navajo, Hopi, and San Juan Southern Paiute reservations. Our offices are located in Farmington and Gallup, New Mexico; however, we serve a broad area around the Four Corners Region of Utah, Arizona, and New Mexico. The Staff Attorney represents clients in administrative hearings, and tribal, state and federal court actions. The Staff Attorney will also work with tribal governments on legislation and policies effecting individuals with disabilities. Applicants must have a demonstrable interest in issues facing individuals with disabilities, a willingness to conduct community education trainings, and assist in training non-attorney staff.

Admission to the Utah, Arizona, or New Mexico Bar is preferred. Because of high level of independence & responsibility, over 2 years experience is also preferred. Willingness to take the next available state and tribal bar exam is required.

Salary: Depends upon experience.

Excellent benefits.
